Portillo's Story

The first Portillo's hot dog stand known as "The Dog House" opened in 1963 on North Avenue in Villa Park. Owner and founder Dick Portillo invested $1,100 into a 6' x 12' trailer without a bathroom or running water. To get the water he needed, he ran 250 feet of garden hose from an adjacent building into his trailer.

By 1967 "The Dog House" was a success and was ready for a new look. After it was remodeled, it was renamed "Portillo's", and over the years, the owner parlayed that $1,100 investment into a multi-million dollar per year chain.

In August of 1975, Dick Portillo and his family embarked on their first vacation to Key West, FL. They enjoyed the experience and the tropical setting so much that Dick thought, "Why not capture all that Key West is, and develop it into a restaurant?" So after years of planning, another new concept restaurant was opened in Naperville in August of 1996; the Key Wester Fish & Pasta House and Hemingway's Bar, complete with a waterfall, 2,200 gallon salt water aquarium and accented with other original nautical memorabilia from Key West, Florida. The Key Wester restaurant offers a wide variety of seafood and pasta specialties, with seating for over 550 and live entertainment at Hemingway's Bar. The Key Wester also has party rooms available for 30-120 people, for any occasion.

In 1993, Dick Portillo introduced a new concept called Barnelli's Pasta Bowl featuring a variety of pastas with homemade sauces, gourmet salads, and specialty sandwiches. Barnelli's Chicagoland locations include Schaumburg, Naperville, Vernon Hills, Glendale Heights, Niles, Summit, Chicago, Crystal Lake, Merrillville, IN, and our newest location in Willowbrook.

In Spring of 1999, the catering division of the Portillo Restaurant Group, Portillo's Home Kitchen, was launched. Portillo's Home Kitchen offers many of the favorites from Dick Portillo's restaurants. Dick Portillo invites you to consider Portillo's for your catering needs. Place your order today and find out why Home Kitchen is the fastest growing caterer in all of Chicagoland.

The Portillo Restaurant Group continued to expand with the opening of the latest concept, Luigi's House. Inspired by Dick Portillo's memories of a trip to Italy and the Mediterranean, Luigi's House opened in Aurora on Rte. 59 in September of 2000, and has received outstanding reviews from guests, media, and food critics. Luigi's House and its garden area have been meticulously designed to create the feeling of dining in a private Italian home. Luigi's House offers cozy Italian dining with authentic traditional Italian cuisine in an Italian/Mediterranean atmosphere with seating for over 450, including party rooms available for 25-100 people.

In Spring of 2000, after many requests, Dick Portillo began shipping Chicago favorites across the country via express delivery. By December 2001, Portillo's was shipping to all 50 states. To ship Chicago favorites to your friends and family, visit www.portillos.com or call 630-851-5151.

Recent expansions include venturing outside of Illinois, with openings in Buena Park and Moreno Valley, CA, and in Merrillville, IN. There are 34 Portillo's Hot Dogs, 10 Barnelli's Pasta Bowls, The Key Wester Fish & Pasta House and Hemingway's Bar, Luigi's House and Julian's Piano Bar and a catering division, for a total of 48 units.

Dick Portillo has been described by Inside Chicago magazine as the "undisputed leader in restaurant fantasies." He is the recipient of the Chicago Area Food Service Marketing Club Hall of Fame Award, the 1991 Chicago Executive of the Year Award, the 1994 Area Service Entrepreneur of the Year Award, sponsored by Inc. Magazine, and the prestigious Silver Platter Award for nine consecutive years. In 1995, he was one of the top three Restaurateurs of the Year by Food Industry News. In 1996, Dick Portillo was named Restaurateur of the Year by Food Industry News. Portillo's was inducted into the Silver Platter Hall of Fame in 1997. In March, 2006, he was inducted into the Chicago Area Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame which is sponsored, in part, by University of Illinois at Chicago.

The Portillo Restaurant Group is the largest privately owned restaurant company in the Midwest with more than 3600 employees operating 46 restaurants, consisting of 4 separate concepts, and a catering company. This was all accomplished without any franchising, investors or partners. Over the years, Portillo's has remained owned by the originator. Dick Portillo attributes much of his success to his hard-working employees and to you, the satisfied customer. He thanks you for your support.
