

Has Diabetes Touched Your Life or Someone You Know? Now There's Hope For a Cure

A photograph of Dick and Sharon Portillo. Dick is on the left, wearing a dark suit jacket over a light-colored shirt, smiling. Sharon is on the right, wearing a dark, patterned top, looking towards the camera with a slight smile. Her hand is resting on Dick's shoulder.

DICK AND SHARON PORTILLO SHARE THEIR STORY

Sharon Portillo, the wife of Dick Portillo, was dependent on insulin for 13 years. In 2005 a breakthrough procedure changed her life forever and she no longer needs insulin. Learn more about this cutting-edge procedure and how you can help find a functional cure for diabetes at www.chicagodiabetesproject.org

Your one time donation can mean a lifelong cure!

Learn more at www.Chicagodiabetesproject.org or www.portillos.com

COMMITTED TO A CURE

The Chicago Diabetes Project is a UIC-based, international effort dedicated to finding a functional cure for diabetes. The success relies entirely on private and public donations. 100% of contributions go entirely to the project. To learn more, visit www.chicagodiabetesproject.org or www.portillos.com

With your help, there's hope.

