A SWEET TREAT: PORTILLO’S OFFERS HEART-SHAPED CHOCOLATE CAKES

The restaurant’s Famous Chocolate Cake dons its “lovely” shape for charity partnership with No Kid Hungry.

(CHALGCO; January 6, 2021)— Portillo’s, the fast-casual restaurant brand known for its menu of Chicago-style favorites, proudly announces a new charity partnership with No Kid Hungry. Coinciding with Valentine’s Day, Portillo’s will offer its Heart-Shaped Chocolate Cake, a limited-time holiday spin on the brand’s iconic Famous Chocolate Cake ($15.99-$16.99, based on location).

As part of the partnership, Portillo’s will be donating $5 from each cake purchased – up to $25,000 – to No Kid Hungry. This charitable contribution will benefit No Kid Hungry’s mission to end child hunger in America by ensuring that all children get the healthy food they need every day to thrive.

“As a supporter of No Kid Hungry, and a believer that all children across America should have access to meals, Portillo’s is proud to be partnering with No Kid Hungry on this important initiative,” said Portillo’s CEO Michael Osanloo. “We look forward to bringing our delicious, famous chocolate cakes for a cause to our guests across the country.”

The single-layer cakes will be available in restaurants from February 5-14. Guests are encouraged to pre-order starting January 12 at portillos.com or by calling 866-YUM-BEEF.

Portillo’s fans across the country can also purchase a Heart-Shaped Cake on portillos.com. The shop-n-ship cake retails at $43.99, which includes free two-day shipping, and is available to ship to all 50 states.

“Children in the United States are facing extraordinary times – one in four kids could be living with hunger today because of the coronavirus,” said Diana Hovey, Senior Vice President, Corporate Partnerships for No Kid Hungry. “We are grateful for Portillo’s support as we work to ensure all kids are getting the healthy meals they need.”
